TREASURY.

"FUEL-OIL TAX ACT."

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to make the following regulations pursuant to the provisions of the "Fuel-oil Tax Act," chapter 71 of the Statutes of British Columbia of 1930:—

1. In these regulations the expression "Act" shall mean the "Fuel-oil Tax Act," the expression "consumer" shall mean any person who consumes fuel-oil in the Province, and the expression "vendor" shall mean any person who keeps for sale or sells fuel-oil in the Province.

2. On or before the fifteenth day of each month every consumer shall make and furnish a return, in duplicate, in respect of all fuel-oil consumed by him during the last preceding month to the Provincial Collector of the assessment and collection district in which the fuel-oil was consumed or in which the principal office of the consumer in the Province is situated. The consumer shall, within the time limited for the making of the return, and without any notice or demand, pay to the Collector at his office the amount of the tax payable under the Act in respect of the fuel-oil so consumed during the month required to be covered by the return. The Collector, upon the payment of the tax, shall return to the consumer one duplicate of the return duly endorsed with the official receipt for the tax, and shall forward the other duplicate to the Surveyor of Taxes.

3. Every consumer shall keep a record in the form prescribed by these regulations of all fuel-oil purchased by him, showing the quantity of fuel-oil purchased from a vendor or purchased and imported from time to time, and stating the name of the person from whom the fuel-oil was purchased and the date of purchase or entry into the Province. Every consumer shall also keep a record showing the quantity of fuel-oil consumed by him during each month.

4. Every applicant for a vendor's licence pursuant to section 5 of the Act shall make application therefor to the Surveyor of Taxes in the form prescribed by these regulations, and shall pay to him the prescribed licence fee in respect of each place of business at which fuel-oil is to be kept for sale or sold by the applicant. The vendor's licence shall be issued by the Surveyor of Taxes, and the licensee named in the licence shall cause it to be continuously displayed in a conspicuous place in the place of business in respect of which it is issued.

5. On or before the fifteenth day of each month every vendor shall make and furnish to the Surveyor of Taxes a return in the form prescribed by these regulations in respect of all fuel-oil sold by the vendor to each purchaser during the last preceding month at each place of business at which fuel-oil was kept for sale or sold by the vendor. The return shall state the name and address of the purchaser and the quantity of fuel-oil sold.

6. The following forms are hereby prescribed for the purposes of these regulations.

NOTE.—The prescribed forms are not here printed, but any form desired for use may be obtained on application to the Surveyor of Taxes or any Provincial Collector.

J. W. JONES,
Minister of Finance.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

(a.) A printed copy of such Bill:

(b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:

(c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

(b.) To carry on the business of hotel, restaurant, café, tavern, licensed beer-house, refreshment-room, and lodging-house keepers, licensed victuallers, wine, beer, and spirit merchants, importers and manufacturers of aerated, mineral, and artificial waters and other drinks, purveyors, eaterers for public amusements generally, taxicab and carriage proprietors, ice merchants, importers and brokers of food, live and dead stock, and foreign produce of all descriptions, hairdressers, perfumers, chemists, proprietors of baths, dressing-rooms, laundries, reading, writing, and newspaper rooms, libraries, grounds, and places of amusement, recreation, sport, entertainment, and instruction of all kinds, tobacco and cigar merchants, agents for railway and shipping companies and carriers, theatrical and opera box-office proprietors, brokers and general agents, and any other business which can be conveniently carried on in connection therewith:

(c.) To carry on business as proprietors of flats or apartment-house buildings, and to let on lease or otherwise apartments therein, and to provide for the tenants or occupiers thereof all or any of the conveniences commonly provided in hotels or clubs:

(d.) To manage land, buildings, and other property, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to collect rents and income, and to supply to tenants, occupiers, and others refreshments, attendance, messengers, light, waiting-rooms, reading-rooms, meeting-rooms, lavatories, laundry conveniences, electric conveniences, stables, garages, and other advantages:

(e.) To develop and turn to account any land acquired by or in which the Company is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, constructing, altering, pulling down, decorating, maintaining, furnishing, fitting up, and improving buildings, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others:

(f.) To carry on the business of merchants, carriers by land or water, ship-owners, wharfingers, warehousemen, scow-owners, barge-owners, lightermen, and forwarding agents, and to buy, sell, repair, build, charter, hire, and operate steamers, tugs, barges, ships, and other vessels, aircraft, trucks, drays, motor and vehicles of any description, and to employ the same in the conveyance of passengers, mails, merchandise, and freight of all kinds:

(g.) To act as agents for any person, firm, or company or corporation; to act as manufacturers' and sales agents, and to carry on a general agency business, and also as agents and commission and brokerage business in all its branches:

(h.) To carry on the business of proprietors or lessees of docks, wharves, jetties, piers, warehouses, cold-storage and refrigeration plants, and of wharfingers and warehousemen:

(i.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of or otherwise turn to account, letters patent, brevets d'invention, concessions, licences, inventions, rights, and privileges, subject to royalty or otherwise, and whether exclusive or non-exclusive or limited, or any part interest in such letters patent, brevets d'invention, concessions, licences, inventions, rights, and privileges, whether in the Dominion of Canada or in any other part of the world, and to manufacture and produce, trade and deal in all machinery, plant, articles, appliances, and things capable of being manufactured, produced, or traded in by virtue of or in connection with any such brevets d'invention, concessions, licences, inventions, rights, and privileges as aforesaid:

(j.) To advance money to any person or persons or corporation, either at interest or without, upon the security of freehold or leasehold estate by way of mortgage or upon any marketable security:

(k.) To acquire the good-will of any business, and to acquire or undertake the sale of all or any of the assets and liabilities of any such business, and take over as a going concern the business in connection therewith:

(l.) To promote or form or assist in the promotion or formation of any companies, businesses, or undertakings having objects wholly or in part similar to those of this Company, or for the purpose of acquiring, purchasing, holding, working, or otherwise dealing with any property of the Company or in which this Company is interested, or for any other purpose, with power generally to assist such companies' businesses or undertakings, and in particular by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses thereof, or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking or disposing of shares therein, or by lending money thereto, upon debentures or otherwise, and further to pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses attending the issue of any prospectus, circular, or notice connected with this or any other company:

(m.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, sell, and give guarantees by way of underwriting or otherwise in relation to stock, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company, or any municipal, public, or local board or authority;

provided always that the funds of this Company shall not be employed in purchasing or acquiring its own shares or in loans upon the security thereof:

(n.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, cheques, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, warrants, securities under the "Bank Act," bonds, debentures, mortgages, and other negotiable or transferable instruments or securities of every nature and kind whatsoever:

(o.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-money, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, effects, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(p.) Generally to carry on any other business, except the business of banking, the construction and operation of railways, telegraph and telephone lines, the business of insurance, or the business of a trust company, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently or profitably carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value and render profitable any of the Company's properties or rights, and to do all and every thing necessary, suitable, convenient, or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated or incidental to the powers herein named, or which shall at any time appear to be conducive or expedient for the protection or benefit of the Company.

And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this clause the meaning of the Company's objects shall not be restricted by reference to any other object, or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity this clause shall be construed in such a way as to widen and not restrict the powers of the Company.

H. G. GARRETT,

2365-je16

Registrar of Companies.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 12951.

To carry on the business of searching for, drilling for, prospecting, preparing, producing, refining, piping, storing, transporting, supplying, buying, selling, manufacturing, processing, and distributing or otherwise disposing of any petroleum, naphtha, natural gas, or minerals, and other products and by-products derived therefrom:

(b.) To engage in the business of dealers in petroleum and all or any of the products or by-products thereof, either wholesale or retail:

(c.) To acquire, construct, maintain, and operate refineries for the refining of crude petroleum:

(d.) To acquire by purchase, lease, concession, licence, exchange, or other legal title, oil-wells, oil lots, easements, oil lands, oil claims, natural-gas wells, lands and places which may seem to the Company capable or possibly capable of affording a supply of oil or gas, and either absolutely or conditionally, and either solely or jointly with others, as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and to lease, place under licence, sell, dispose of, and otherwise deal with the same or any part thereof or any interest therein:

(e.) To carry on the business in Canada or elsewhere of importers, exporters, producers, traders, refiners, storers, transporters, marketers, suppliers, and distributors of petroleum and petroleum products and by-products of every kind and description and natural gas:

(f.) To carry on the business of manufacturer and refiner of oils, grease, petroleum, and the by-products thereof; to deal in, import and export, prospect for, open, develop, work, improve, maintain, and manage, acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, and sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of petroleum-oil lands, oil, grease, chemicals, or rights or interests therein, and to purchase, buy, sell, and deal in crude petroleum-oil and other oils, grease, and other products thereof; to sink oil-wells; to erect, acquire, buy, purchase, lease, or otherwise maintain and operate oil-refineries or plants; to work the same; to store, tank, warehouse, refine crude petroleum-oil and other oils, grease, and chemicals; to construct and operate pipe-lines for transportation of oil; to construct and maintain oil-works on the property of the Company; to do all acts, matters, and things as are incidental or necessary to the due attainment of the above objects or any of them; to carry on the business of bonded warehouses, custom-brokers, and storage-warehouses:

(g.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, maintain, or operate gas-stations, marine fuel-stations, or other stations for the sale of petroleum or naphtha products, and to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the same:

(h.) To guarantee the contracts and obligations of any person, firm, or corporation in respect of any business entered into between such persons, firms, or corporations and this Company:

(i.) To carry out any transactions or operations whatsoever which may be lawfully undertaken and carried out by capitalists, brokers, merchants, underwriters, financiers, or concessionaires, and to carry on a general financial business and general financial operations of all kinds in any part of the world, and to undertake or aid in any enterprise:

(j.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, sell, assign, transfer, or otherwise dispose of shares of the capital stock, bonds, debentures, or other evidence of indebtedness of or created by any other corporation, and while the holder thereof to exercise all the rights and privileges of ownership, including the rights to vote thereon:

(k.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as from time to time may be determined by the directors:

(l.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole or the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(m.) To take all necessary and proper steps in any Parliament, or with any foreign, colonial, or other Government, or with any authority (local, municipal, or otherwise) in any part of the world, for enabling the Company to give effect to these presents, or to carry any of the Company's objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose, and to oppose the granting of any Act, Bill, or provisional order or concession to others, or to any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests, and to apply for, procure, or obtain any powers, privileges, rights, or concessions for this Company or for any other company or person:

(n.) To take, have, use, and enjoy all the powers conferred by the "Water Act, 1929," and any amendments thereto:

(o.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid in any part of the world as principals or agents, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(p.) To make gifts and donations to any person, firm, or corporation for any purpose whatsoever, whether such person, firm, or corporation be a member of this Company or not.

The word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs hereto shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company), but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.
